Trinity Western University is located on the traditional ancestral unceded territory of the Sto:lo people.

Course Description:

"A broad introduction to the field of psychology as a science. The practical, life-oriented application of scientific principles of psychology. Other topics covered include: development, learning, biological bases of behaviour, motivation and emotion, perception, measurement and fundamental statistics, personality, behavioural disorders and mental health, and group and social processes." (Academic Calendar)

Introduction to Psychology II (PSYC 106) is the second half of a two term sequence in general psychology. The course presents a broad introduction to the field of psychology as a science, with emphasis on the practical, life-oriented application of scientific principles of psychology.

Topics covered in this course include: thinking and intelligence, lifespan development, behavioural disorders and mental health, personality, and group and social processes.

Attempts will be made throughout the course to relate the content of Psychology to students' everyday experience as well as to a Christian worldview. (Of course, to take this course it is not necessary that you be a Christian. Whatever your beliefs, you are encouraged to examine them in light of what you are learning.)

Required (e)Textbook and Materials:

Krause, M., Corts, D., Smith, S. C., & Dolderman, D. (2018). Revel for An Introduction to Psychological Science, 2nd Canadian Edition. Pearson Ed.

Purchase/Register at: Purchase/Register at: <https://console.pearson.com/enrollment/uj4kje>

Be sure to make use of the resources (i.e., chapter quizzes, videos, etc.) that are included with your etextbook purchase.

Moodle will be used to circulate lecture slides (which complements reading and can be used for note-taking), assignment information, grades, course updates, and other interesting things as they come up. You will need to regularly access Moodle and will need to have access to a printer if you would like to print the materials provided online.

Zoom meetings: Zoom class meetings will be on Monday evenings starting at 6:00pm PST. The first Zoom meeting will commence on January 25, 2021 and the last Zoom meeting will be on March 01, 2021. Zoom sessions will be utilized to discuss topic information, upcoming assessments, and to answer any course related questions. Zoom meetings may be recorded and uploaded to Moodle to serve as a resource for students who were unable to attend or who would like to review the meeting.

Course Activities/Requirements and Evaluation:

Your grade in this course will be earned through scores obtained on 3 quizzes, two writing assignments, a final exam, a term assignment, and Forum participation.

Grade breakdown:

Quizzes	30%
Writing Assignments	20%
Final Exam	30%
Term Assignment	15%
Forum Participation	5%

Total	100%

Quizzes (30%): Through this course students will complete 3 open-book online quizzes you will have one quiz per Module. The quizzes will be based on information found in the etextbook. They will be comprised of 30 multiple-choice questions and you will have 40 minutes to complete the quizzes. Quizzes will need to be completed by 11:59pm PST of the date in the Progression of the Course section. *Note: this means that every quiz you write is worth 10% of your final grade!

Writing Assignments (20%): An objective of this course is for students to develop critical thinking skills in psychology. You will be asked to complete 2 writing assignments during this course. The first one will be completed at the end of Module 1 (10% of final grade) and the second one will be completed at the end of Module 2 (10% of final grade). You can find the journal articles for each paper and the list of thought questions that need to be answered on Moodle. Each thought question should be two to three paragraphs in length. The assignment will be graded according to the conciseness and relevance (essential vs. extraneous information) of the material included in the paper (30% of the grade), demonstration of understanding and insight (40% of the grade), grammatical and structural accuracy (20% of the grade), and adherence to APA style writing requirements (10% of the grade).
*Papers should be double-spaced, Times New Roman 12 font letters, with default Word margins.
*When assignment is complete upload it in the Moodle Dropbox by 11:59 pm PST of the due date stated in the Progression of Course section below.

Final Exam (30%): Students will complete final exam based on etextbook material from the entire course. The exam is cumulative. The exam is open-book and comprised of 100 multiple-choice questions and you will have 120 minutes to complete it. The exam will be on March 04, 2021.

Term Assignment (15%): Students will complete one assignment for this course. The assignment details are on Moodle in the Assignment Overview document and Sample Term Assignment document. The assignment should be in 6th or 7th Ed. APA (American Psychological Association) format and submitted to todd.dutka@twu.ca by 11:59pm PST on March 07, 2021.

*Paper should be double-spaced, Times New Roman 12 font letters, with default Word margins.

*When assignment is complete upload it in the Moodle Dropbox.

Forum Participation (5%): You are expected to comment in the online discussion forum. There are numerous discussion questions in the online lessons for you to give your response to. Equally valuable, you may respond to other people's responses in the forum. You don't need to respond to every question posed in the course materials; there are far too many. To receive full marks for this activity you will need to make 10 postings to the Forum (each about a paragraph long). Forum participation is analogous to class participation in the traditional face-to-face classroom. Emphasis (and marks) in the forums is on participation, not depth of knowledge.

Policies:

Final Grades: Final grades will be assigned following the completion of all course requirements.

Academic Integrity and Avoiding Plagiarism at TWU: One of the core values of Trinity Western University is the integration of academic excellence with high standards of personal, moral, and spiritual integrity. The University considers it a serious offence when an individual attempts to gain unearned academic credit. It is the student's responsibility to be informed about what constitutes academic dishonesty. For details on this, and on identifying and avoiding plagiarism go to the University Homepage > Academics > Academic Calendar > Academic Information > Academic Policies > Academic Dishonesty and Plagiarism.

Campus Closure and Class Cancellation Policy: In the event of extreme weather conditions or other emergency situations go to the University Homepage > Campus Notification (in the page footer) > Class cancellation policy.

Accessibility Statement: Students with a disability who need assistance are encouraged to contact the Centre for Accessible Learning upon admission to TWU to discuss their specific needs. All social and educational considerations must be recently documented by an appropriately certified professional and include the educational impact along with recommended accommodations. Within the first two weeks of the semester, students must meet with their professors to agree on accommodations appropriate to each class. Students should follow the steps detailed by the Centre for Accessible Learning outlined in on the Centre for Accessible Learning website.
